What's On

Summer 2018

INTRODUCTION

We start Summer with a major masonry project ongoing here at the Abbey, but we are very much still open and looking forward to welcoming visitors. There are many opportunities to celebrate and enjoy life with special activities and events. Please do read all about them in these pages.

I hope you will be inspired and enriched by visiting Hexham Abbey and find something to enjoy.

Wishing you a sunny summer.

Handlebards Twelfth Night

Sunday 12th August
6:30pm start

The world's first cycling theatre company, The HandleBards, pedal from venue to venue with all the set, props and costume necessary to perform environmentally sustainable Shakespeare across the globe. Join their all-male troupe for a bicycle-powered production like none other. In usual HandleBards style, expect riotous amounts of energy, a fair old whack of chaos, and a great deal of laughter.

Please note this performance is open air so please dress for the weather and bring a low backed chair, rug or cushions.

Hexham and District Photography Society Exhibition

Monday 13th – Sunday 26th August

The Hexham & District Photographic Society Summer Exhibition is on the theme 'Voyager'. This is to celebrate last year's 40th anniversary of the launch of Voyager 1 and 2 by NASA which included a number of images portraying life on Earth. We challenged members to produce work with a modern take on the Voyager images, to illustrate life here on earth to life forms in distant galaxies, which we would include on any future mission.
