

The LAWRENCE PHELPS RECITAL AWARD 2011

Patrons: Dame Gillian Weir, Claire Hawkins, Miner Raymond (USA), Ron Lane, John E Clarke

THE PRIZE

- A Recital on Hexham Abbey's renowned Phelps organ plus
- Two 1½ hour consultation lessons on the organ from distinguished international recitalist and teacher Michael Harris

THE COMPETITION

The winner will be selected by audition in Hexham Abbey on Friday 28 October 2011

APPLICANTS

The award is open to organists aged 16-21 inclusive at 28 October 2011 and who live, or study within, the dioceses of Newcastle, Durham, Edinburgh or Carlisle

Application form

THE LAWRENCE PHELPS RECITAL AWARD Application form for 2011

Full name:

Date of birth:

Address:

(if this is at University or College please also supply permanent address)

Telephone:

Mobile:

Music examination achievements:

Letter of commendation: Please enclose a letter from your teacher which should refer to your suitability for the award and the benefit you would obtain from the expert coaching. Your teacher should also provide details; they may be contacted in advance of the audition.

Choice of pieces for audition:

1. A Bach trio movement, either from the Six Trio sonatas or an appropriate chorale prelude.
Please specify:
2. An own choice piece.
Please specify:

Notes:

Total length of both pieces must not exceed 10 minutes

There will be an opportunity for practice time before the audition

The auditions are conducted by Michael Harris and the Director of Music at Hexham Abbey

The decision of the Award organisers as to the suitability of applicants to proceed to audition is final.

Signature:

Please send completed form and the required letter to:
The Lawrence Phelps Recital Award, The Parish Centre, Hexham Abbey,
Beaumont Street, Hexham, Northumberland, NE46 3NB
CLOSING DATE 28 September 2011